

The Neepawa Press Distribution Area

The Neepawa Press

The Neepawa Press has been the newspaper of record for Neepawa and area since 1896. Readers look to the Press for news coverage of Neepawa and district as well as fair editorial commentary.

Advertisers look to the Press for its market coverage and creative advertisements.

Through experience and market research, we know where your best customers live and we have designed our distribution area to reach them.

Our many provincial and national awards attest to the quality of journalism, creativity and production values at The Press.
